So much can happen in nine months at home and abroad. When fall term started last September, Jimmy Carter was still President, and it was nearing a year's time that the hostages had been held captive in Iran. Here at Manchester, Bill Jones was the Community Council president, there was grass where the new gym now stands, and students had never heard of "David Stockman's" budget cuts.

When the smoke cleared after the November 1980 presidential election, Ronald Reagan came out the victor. A close race was predicted, but it turned out to be an easy victory for the ex-actor Reagan. The American people were clearly ready for a change, and within a month after President Reagan officially took office they were confronted with Reagan's New Economic Plan. The economic plan was devised by Reagan's right-hand man, David Stockman, who is the director of the Office of Management and Budget. Reagan's New Economic Plan calls for drastic budget reductions for the cities, for the public school systems, for social security, and ... GASP! OH NO! ... financial aid.

In response to the financial aid cuts, Manchester College sponsored a campus-wide letter writing campaign. All students were urged to write their senators asking for increased state funds for financial aid, and many students were happy to oblige.

Manchester College students also kept in the trend of change by voting Mistie Tomlinson the first woman Community Council president. Miss Tomlinson, who received 60 percent of the popular vote, put rewriting the Community Council constitution as her top priority. Miss Tomlinson also served as chairman of a coffeehouse planning committee. This committee is currently supervising the remodeling of three basement rooms in Oakwood Residence Hall for use as a student, staff, and faculty coffeehouse next year.

A. Blair Helman celebrated his 25th anniversary as President of Manchester College this year. Manchester students showed their gratification during one of the Monday morning convocations. The first day of May Day week was also dedicated to President Helman, and was dubbed "A. Blair Day."

The new gym, located behind East and Garver Halls, was put well underway this year. Although construction was stalled by a delay in steel delivery, students were very surprised as to the speed in which the steel girders were transformed into the shell of the future physical education center. To help raise money for the inflated cost of the building, a gym-a-thon was sponsored. Students, faculty, and staff gathered sponsors for their pledge sheets, and on May 3, 1981 they spent the day walking, running, or biking a 25-mile course in the North Manchester area. When all the figures were tabulated, over $18,000 had been raised. Nationally, much has happened in these last nine months. On January 20, 1981, Americans had breathed a giant sigh of relief. Not only had President Reagan taken office on that day, but the 50 American hostages who had been held for over a year, were finally released from Iran. Former President Carter flew to Germany to greet the courageous Americans, while television stations juggled their coverage from Washington D.C. to Germany, where the Americans were staying as a stopover before departing for the U.S. Not long after, Americans were shocked at the news of the ex-Beatle, John Lennon's death. John Lennon was shot to death outside his New York townhouse, and it seemed that all of America had gone into mourning.

At the end of March Americans felt the pang of a national disaster. There was an assassination attempt against the life of President Reagan, which not only wounded the President, but also seriously injured his Press Secretary, Jim Brady, and a Washington D.C. police officer. Near the end of April, NASA successfully got the Columbia Space Shuttle off the ground after years of complications.

Internationally, Americans felt the fear of conflict. Young men and women were faced with the fact that they might have to be drafted during several touchy situations. The conflict between Iran and the U.S. was great during those many months that the hostages were held. The tension grew when Russia invaded Afghanistan and also during the Polish Solidarity Strike. The fears have also grown that the communist threat in El Salvador may end up in another Viet Nam.

So in the last nine months different feelings and emotions have come and gone in response to many events, but although much has happened it seems that nothing has changed.

STUDENT LIFE

Annual Camp Mack Day

Fritz Detwiler and Dwight Beery display their talents in a ping-pong game.

What day is it when Manchester students and faculty break from classes to head for a day of outdoor activities? Camp Mack Day, of course! This year, Camp Mack Day was observed on September 18. Activities for the morning included volleyball, four-square, ping-pong, and hiking. A lunch was served by the MC cafeteria workers. The afternoon centered around a faculty and student softball game. Students returned to campus in the early evening after a relaxing day spent with friends off-campus.

Sunrise Sunset

There was a busy weekend planned for Parent's Weekend 1980 with a bluegrass band, a President's reception, a football game, an A Cappella and Jazz Band concert and two movies. Some parents watched the movie "Going In Style," but few were brave enough to stay up and watch the other movie shown at midnight—"Halloween."

Many parents enjoyed Coffee with the Professors where they could meet with their son's or daughter's teachers and get a glimpse of how their child was doing.

In all it was a fun and exciting weekend in which students had to work hard to keep up with their parents.

Winter Festival: "Snow Horizons"

The first week in February brought the winter festival with the theme "Snow Horizons." Activities were planned well in advance for the week. However, the weather did not fully cooperate and some outdoor activities such as the snow sculpture contest between the dorms had to be cancelled. Regardless of the weather, students enjoyed the rest of the activities. A contest of football in the snow was still held along with indoor activities. Many students signed up for the Union tournaments. At the end of the week, a dance was held in the Union with the band Apogé. Anyone wearing a winter scarf got in at a reduced price. So, in spite of the small amount of snow and cancelled activities, winter festival provided extra excitement to an ordinary week in February.

Friends Reunite for a "Super" Weekend

Eileen Herr, returning for friends weekend to visit Brent Yoder, sits listening with many other students to Amy's singing.

Friends weekend was a "super" weekend headed up by chairperson Kathy Reid. She and many others worked together to make up a great weekend. It featured such events as open union, a square dance, a dance featuring "Sidekick" and also the movie "Superman." Many friends came down to help make it a "super" time.

Amy Statler shares an evening of her talents during her Friday night in the Oaks.

A Rip-Roarin' Weekend

The weekend of April 3 through April 5 was a happy, exciting weekend for many brothers and sisters. It was a time set aside for them to stay on campus. The western theme for the weekend was "A rip-roarin' weekend." Friday started the activities with registration, and then a kick-off dinner. The evening's entertainment included the movie "Pete's Dragon," an Oaks special "Make your own sundae," and a benefit dance closed out the night. Saturday began with crafts and games in the gym and a girls softball game. Due to cold weather, the scheduled picnic was held inside the Union. Oakwood basement was the site for an afternoon carnival consisting of games and prizes. Saturday evening consisted of swimming, SNITO (Saturday Night In The Oaks), Union tournaments, and a country/rock band. Sunday Celebration started Sunday off. After dinner and despite cold weather, approximately 25 children participated in an Easter egg hunt at Warvel park. After open gym, the weekend was concluded with a concert in Cordier auditorium by the Concert and Jazz bands.

Gym activities provided fun for all.

The theme for the weekend sponsored by R.H.A. was "Go Bananas." That's almost what happened as weather called a halt to some of the planned activities. There were many scheduled events including a Monopoly game, a movie, a banana eating contest, a water balloon game, a talent contest, and a softball game. The weekend turned out to be one enjoyed by all.

May Day Week is one of the most looked for time of year. It gives many students a chance to get out in the fresh spring weather to enjoy the warm air. It also functions as one of the last scheduled events of the school year. Many hours of hard work and planning precede the actual celebrated time. The weather caused part of the festivities to be held over until the following week. May Day Week was considered successful by all.

Our Town

The play Our town was performed as a part of May Day Festivities. Written by Thornton Wilder, the practically propless production has been shown to both live and television audiences for years. Manchester's cast starred Karen Harris, Dan Lute, and Steve Viehweg who functioned as the narrator. The play was shown three times; first to area high school students, then twice to campus and community.

Candids

To almost all Manchester students, Monday morning 10:00 means it is time for a convocation in Cordier Auditorium. Convos are an eighty-four hour requirement for graduation. There are a variety of programs offered to interest every student. These programs often include musical groups, speakers, and movies. Another type of convocation is Senior Series. Jeff Davidson, Julie Hunn, Cathy Mishler, and Brian Steel were selected by their classmates to give a Senior Series which reflected each of their own feelings. Convos mean different things to different people. To some, they are very interesting and stimulating. To others, that time provides an adequate study hour. And to still others, convos are just a graduation requirement.

Calvin Ulrey Hall

Calvin Ulrey Hall is one of two co-ed dorms on campus. It has two floors of men with the top floor devoted to women housing approximately 70 students. This dorm contains the Living-Learning center (LLC). Because of the LLC, Calvin Ulrey is the most non-traditional dorm on campus. Learning with those around you, on both a community and personal level, is what this program tries to emphasize. Seminars on a variety of topics, such as alcoholism, sex roles, and crisis intervention, are planned by dorm leaders and are held several times a year.

East Hall

East Dorm Council

East Hall is a four-story dorm which can house approximately 235 women in triple, double, or single rooms. Their yard is shared by Garver residents. This is one of two dorms which can have private telephones installed in the rooms. Arrangements are made with General Telephone Company. East Hall has an open lobby area on first floor, limited basement recreation room, and smaller lounges, kitchenettes, sewing and music rooms on other floors. East Hall houses visitor rooms which are available to visiting persons staying on campus overnight. This dorm usually tries to promote a study atmosphere.

Garver Hall

Garver Hall is one of two co-ed dorms on campus. It is built in a "U" shape with women on the west wing and men on the east wing. Approximately 240 students can live in a double and single rooms. The men's wing has four floors and the women's wing has three floors. There is a large lobby area which is divided into several smaller areas, including a t.v. room and an area for ping pong. There is also a piano located in the lobby. Garver lobby is open 24 hours a day to all campus students and guests.

Ikenberry Hall

Ikenberry Dorm Council

Ikenberry Hall is the oldest hall on campus. It can house approximately 80 men in double rooms. Due to the small number of residents, the men are generally close-knit and they have many activities involving other dorms on campus. One tradition still observed by Ikenberry men is the Ike Serenade which takes place in the fall. This dorm was the first honors dorm on campus. A quiet, study atmosphere is the factor which helps Ikenberry maintain the honors quality.

Oakwood Hall

Oakwood Hall residents.

Oakwood Hall is the oldest women's dorm on campus. It can house approximately 225 women in triple, double, or single rooms. This dorm is unique from other women's dorms in two ways. First, the east half of the dorm has in-the-room sinks. Second, furniture in all of the rooms is movable allowing for room personalization. In the 1960's, Oakwood was extensively remodeled. Several features make this dorm a place to be endeared. There are three porches with two porch swings and the basement contains a large social room suitable for dances as well as daily use. Part of the basement is the site of the future coffee house. The grandfather clock in the lobby is one asset of which Oakwood residents are very proud.

Schwalm Hall

Schwalm Hall residents.

Schwalm Hall is the newest residence hall on campus. It has four floors and can house approximately 240 men in double and single rooms. The activities at Schwalm are as varied as the residents. This hall is very modern in design and contains a lobby as well as two recreation areas. Schwalm is one of two dorms which can arrange with General Telephone Company to have private telephones installed in the rooms. This hall is the site for many of the campus dances.

A Capella Choir

The A Capella Choir is an extra curricular choir consisting of anyone who is selected after auditioning for Mr. Floyd Slotterback. Performances are given in area churches, for the college community, and on a one week tour during spring break. As the name implies, most of the selections do not include instrumental accompaniment. A smaller bell choir is organized from A Capella members.

OVERALL RECORD 0-9

There was a lot more than meets the eye when looking at the Spartan's 0-9 record. Under the surface you can find a very young team who worked very hard under the "discipline, comradity" theme of this year's new Head Coach, Jerry Lasko.

Coach Lasko and his assistants, Jim Gratz, John Schultz, Jack Jarrett, Bill Bagley, Bob Johnson, and Stan Hoooley led the Spartans through a season in a conference which included five nationally ranked teams. The inexperience of the team members coupled with costly turnovers at crucial points in the games, cost the Spartan gridders many close games. But, nonetheless, the determined Spartans made noticeable improvements throughout the season which brought the game scores within a touchdown in the last few exciting games.

The individual accomplishments of eight Spartan players were recognized by the Hoosier-Buckeye Conference when Ron Harnish was named to the Conference's first team defense, Dan Smogar to the second team offense, and Brian Rosenbaum to the second team defense. Don Koester, Terrence Wilson, Dave Blocker, Tom Ramirez, and Tim McDevitt were named to the Conference's Honorable Mention list. Also to be mentioned are the many unsung heroes of this year's team who will comprise a more experienced Spartan team in the 1981 season.

Manchester Gridders Fall

Homecoming 1980 was an activity filled week. Both soccer and football teams played their homecoming games. The Oaks hosted a sundae for a quarter night and for the first time, an on-campus photography contest was held. Other activities include a lobby decorating contest, a scavenger hunt, and a dance with Amusement Park from Chicago. The week ended with a two night performance of the musical 'The Bells are Ringing.'

Bells Are

The Homecoming musical was a very successful production involving many students, faculty, and staff. The play was a story of Ella and her adventures due to her over-friendliness while working as a switchboard operator. The stars of the musical included Janet Lawson as Sue, Jennifer Mitchell as Ella, Jeff Davidson as Sandor, and Randy Clinker as Jeff Moss. Approximately 85 people were involved in helping make Bells are Ringing an enjoyable performance.

The musical opened with Cindy Miller, Elaine Lindower, Mary Plunkett, Linda Martin, and Kim Cobbs in song.

Coach David Good. BACK ROW: Butch Funka, Kayode Teslim, John Hulewicz, Joe Varga, Dave Martin, Jeff Bedell, Rick Walker, Trainer Joe Harvey.

The Manchester Soccer Team started out the 1980 season with a bang by getting a victory over the Alumni during Homecoming weekend. The Spartans played twelve more games during the season to end up the year 5-8. Coach Greg Hastings and Assistant Coach David Good considered this season to be a building one since the team was very young. There were only two graduating seniors who left the team.

The outstanding member of the team was Kwaku Forkue-Seryere who had the 4th highest goals per game in the NAIA with 14 goals scored in 9 games. Although Kwaku was out with an injury for part of the season he still was placed in the number eleven spot on the list of individual point leaders with a 3.22 average per game.

Netters Have Strong Season in Division III Matches

The Manchester Volleyball Team closed the 1980-81 season with a 12-8 Division III record and a 14-18 record overall. A strong asset this year was the strength of the team's front line and its back court defense. The team, coached by Lana Groombridge, was matched up against quite a few Division II schools. Although the competition was tough against these schools, Manchester showed that it wasn't completely out-classed by playing some very close matches. One outstanding individual from this year's team was sophomore Beth Doeberman who was named to the all-state tournament team.

The 1980 Manchester Cross Country Team was a tremendous success. Their dual meet record was six wins and one loss. They came in first place in NAIA District 21, second place at Little State and placed second in the KBCC Conference meet.

Their major accomplishment of the season was going to the Nationals as a team for the first time in Manchester's history. They placed 21st at the meet.

Special awards were given to Tom Lower for Most Valuable Runner 1980, Larry Hoston for Most Improved Runner, and Jeff Niespodziany the 1980 captain.

Although the team will be losing four seniors this year the remaining runners should be able to use their experience to achieve another winning season in 1981.

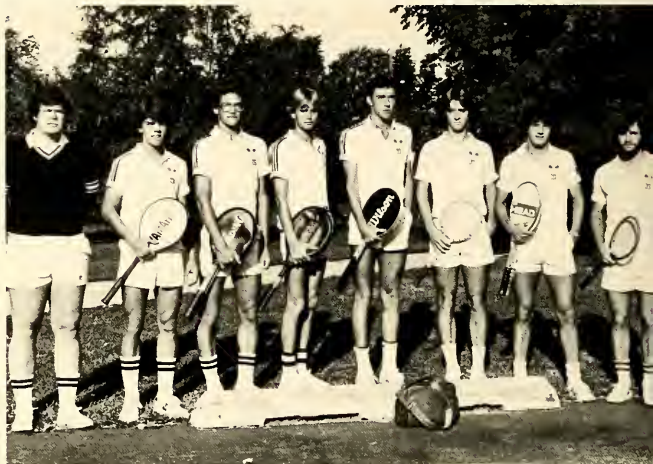

Manchester Netters Take Third in Conference

The Manchester Men's Tennis team finished a tough 4-5 season this year. Although the Spartans had only two returning lettermen, they showed their best effort against some excellent conference schools. The Manchester Netters finished a strong third in the Hoosier-Buckeye Conference while finishing fifth in the NAIA District 21.

The 1980-81 Spartan Basketball Team saw some new faces this year. Seven freshmen were added to this year's team along with some upper classmen who returned to play this season. Rounding out the personnel were new managers trainer, and Monte Moffett, the new assistant basketball coach.

Coach Merritt was able to increase their schedule of games this year. Even though their HBCC record was 4-12 and overall record was 8-20, the Spartans were able to gain valuable experience for next year's season. The highlight for this season was their first in the HBCC in free-throw percentage.

Special recognition should go to Cris Brandenburg for placing 2nd in the HBCC in scoring with 20.2 points per game. MVP of the season, Ron Moyer, placed 4th with a scoring average of 17.7 points per half. Ron and Cris were also the Spartan team co-captain.

The J.V. Team, coached by Monte Moffett, ended their season 7-7. Placing second in the Anderson J.V. Tourney was the highlight of the season. Outstanding player, Garrett Davenport, was voted "Rookie of the Year" by his teammates.

The 1980-81 Manchester College Women's Basketball Team had its best season ever this year. Compiling a 15-8 overall season record their outstanding accomplishments began by winning the Huntington Winter Classic. The victory included a win over a very strong Division II team, Valparaiso University, 74-64. Three of the six regular season losses were to much stronger Division II programs, but these games served to strengthen the Lady Spartans as they took 2nd place to St. Mary's College in the IIAW Northern District Tournament. This qualified the team as one of four finalists in the state tournament. An outstanding season best performance was not enough to defeat Marion College as they fell 68-59 in the semi-finals.

Individual bests included sophomore Cathy Nelson with all rebounds and 18 points per game. Karen Reed led in assists with 6 per game and 13 points per game. All-District tournament team included Cathy Nelson and Karen Reed, who was also an All-State selection. Robin Wiggins was a Honorable mention All-State selection.

Wrestlers Achieve Winning Season Despite Injuries

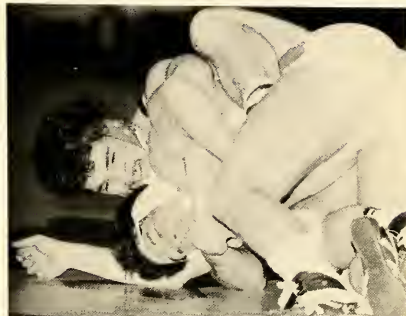

Dan Wright and Don Black display the "cradle" hold which is taken before trying to accomplish the pin.

WRESTLERS: Delver Kutemeier, Don Black, and Dan Wright.

Although two of the Manchester Wrestling Team members were hampered with injuries during the 1980 season, the remaining three members had strong seasons. Freshman Randy Langford finished the season 14-7 with 8 pins and sophomore Delver Kutemeier finished 10-8. Freshman Don Black wrestled at both the 177 and 190 weight classes this year. He finished his season 6-8, and he ranked third in the NAIA and fourth in the HECE.

Randy Langford tries to get in a good position for the pin.

Softball Team Revitalized; Have Winning Season

Although a women's softball team had been nonexistent for the last five years, the 1981 Manchester Women's Softball Team came back into competition with a strong season. Compiling a regular season record of 15-5, the Lady Spartans highlighted their season by defeating the defending and eventual state champion Taylor University. Going into the state tournament the women had won their last eight consecutive ball games. The strength of the St. Mary's Belles offense was too much for the Lady Spartans to handle in the State Tournament, and they suffered a 6-2 loss.

The team was led offensively by sophomores Carla Bryant and Jackie Nutt, each with .377 batting averages. The long-ball hitter of the team was Deb Hanson, who had nine home runs. Jackie Nutt led in stolen bases with 17. Combined, Deb Hanson and Joyce Rhoades struck out a total of 63 opponents and allowed very few earned runs.

Coach Hockemeyer guides Linda Allen into third base.

FRONT ROW: Linda Allen, Gayle Newton, Deb Corson, Carla Bryant, Joyce Rhoades, Patty Hochstetler, Karen Reed.

From Arizona, to Little State, Back to California

Breaking the tape for a win is junior Pam Crowe.

Freshman Robin Wiggin seems to fly over the long jump pit.

The Manchester College Women's Track Team started out their year by taking a spring training trip to Arizona. When the women returned to Manchester, they came back to wet weather which hampered the whole season. But the Lady Spartans didn't let that get them down, as they finished the season undefeated. One key meet was "Little State" where they compiled 122 points for the Little State championship.

In compiling Manchester College's first undefeated season in women's track and field competition nine Manchester records were reset. Michele Brewer set new 5,000 M, 3,000 M, and mile records. She was also part of a four woman team which set a new 3,200 M relay record. Her teammates in that race were Stacy O'Hair, Beth Anderson, and Deb Kreps. An 880 yard relay record was set by Pam Crowe, Dorcus Brewer, Eileen Haugh, and Sherry Burkholder. 800 M dash and 1600 M relay records were also set.

Two individuals set new records which qualified them for national competition in California. They were Anne Wiggin with a high jump record of 5-feet-5 and Robin Wiggin with a long jump record of 17-feet-10.

Along with their fine performances were many great efforts by the new members of the team.

The Spartans went 4-2 in dual meets, placed second in NAIA District 21, and placed second in the HBCC conference meet.

Individual accomplishments were many this year. Four school records were broken, Pat McGinley in shot put, Bryan Richardson in high jump, and Jeff Niespodziany broke his own records in the 5,000 M and the 10,000 M several times.

In the Conference meet, Manchester placed second to a very deep Anderson squad. Despite this they still had five first places. Jeff Niespodziany set HBCC conference records with two wins at this meet.

The team ended the season with a good record and showed definite promise for next year's season. Four individuals didn't stop at the end of the regular season because they qualified to compete at the Nationals in Houston. They were Jeff Niespodziany, Bryan Richardson, John Lisak, and Kirby Herschberger.

Jared Jones leads his opponents over this flight of hurdles.

Coming in a close second is freshman Andre Holloway.

Freshman Chris Norris breaks the tape for a win in the 1500 M race.

In this long distance race sophomore Pete Reist tallies up another lap.

Besides being the top discus thrower, senior Matt Gosnell proved he is an asset in the shot put as well.

Clearing this hurdle in the 400 intermediate hurdle race is senior Jared Jones.

Squad Takes Some Tough Shots

The Spartan baseball team faced a tough season in 1981. The team, coached by Jim Gratz, gained some very valuable players.

The Spartans began their season by heading to Alabama where they lost senior, Duane Sautbine to a broken ankle.

They came back to finish a season record of ten wins to sixteen losses, and a five to eight record in the HBCC.

The team was led by Jeff Hughes, Tracy Hughes, Rick Robinson, Randy Miller, and Don Koester offensively. Defensively, pitcher Mark Weides led the staff with nine wins, while Mike Aaron, the shortstop, and Frank Romeo, the centerfielder, played excellent defense throughout the year.

To end the season, sophomore Mark Weides got the Most Valuable Player award and seniors Duane Sautbine and Bill Myers both got Honorary Captain.

Showing good follow-through form is senior Don Koester.

Concentrating on getting to base against Goshen College is sophomore Jim Evans.

ORGANIZATIONS

A.A.F.R.O Celebrates Tenth Year

The A.A.F.R.O. (Afro-Americans Forming Rightful Objectives) Club celebrated its tenth anniversary this year with a wide variety of social and educational activities. The club has worked diligently this year to interact with other campus organizations. The results of this effort have been very rewarding. Among the major events this year was a campus convocation during Black History Week where the Honorable Mayor Richard Hatcher spoke on the importance of Black History in our schools. Club members had the opportunity to meet the Mayor at an informal luncheon held in the Union Seminar Room. The theme for this year's celebration was "NEVER TOO YOUNG, TOO GIFTED, OR TOO BLACK." The officers for the club were Theodore Wilson, President; Jared Jones, Vice President; Cynthia Jackson, Secretary and Brenda Jones, Treasurer.

Broadcasting Is Their Business

FRONT ROW: Tim Murray, Bill Hays, Chuck Hein, Kathy Black. SECOND ROW: Julie Kintz, Theresa Roper, Mary Rohrbacher, Janet Bowen. BACK ROW: Kip Cook, Jeff Davidson, Sam Davis, Jerry Roop, Kent Shady.

The WBKE staff of 1980-81 had a highly successful year. The staff consisted of dedicated students who have an interest in broadcasting. Sam Davis is the faculty advisor. This year's programming was broadened to include more subjects of greater interest to the students. Some of the programs aired included coverage of college sports activities, some high school sports, classical music, and news. As a result, the student audience was somewhat larger.

Dave McKenzie, Bill Hays, and Kent Shady coordinate their efforts to broadcast a radio program.

U.P.C. Plans Student Activities

Robin Lange uses non-verbals to help illustrate her point.

Planning special events on campus is the main activity of the Union Program Council. The students serving on UFC are elected to their positions by the college community. This year's UPC was very active. Some of their many successes included dances, movies, and weekends such as Friends weekend and Brother/Sister weekend.

Publishers of the MC News

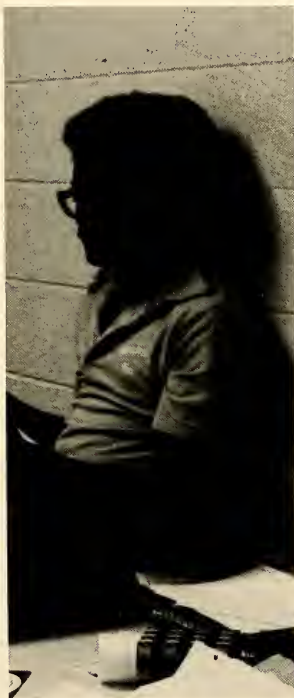

Leon Jett, Susan Detert, and Melinda Lantz at work.

Putting out a campus weekly takes a devoted staff. Oak Leaves staff meets this qualification. Approximately ten students spend at least one hour a week covering events, writing articles, and taking pictures. The campus community may not be aware of the many details which take someone on the staff hours to work out. These details range from balancing a budget to figuring out the arrangement of each page's contents. The Oak Leaves staff worked hard to produce a worthwhile newspaper.

Format of Yearbook

Editor Merlinda Ritenour.

Advisor Joy Groninger and photographers.

The Aurora Staff 1981 consisted of 15 dedicated people, seven of whom were also photographers. Overcoming obstacles was the main challenge for this group which was led by a freshman editor and a new advisor. Early in October, Newsfoto Publishing Company was selected to publish the yearbook. From then on, it was all work. Trying to reorganize the Aurora into a better yearbook became the primary goal of the staff. Pages were added to encourage better coverage of the college, and a group of seven photographers became responsible for taking pictures. Mr. Adams asked his fall photography classes to lend a hand in picture taking. A student developer was hired to help cut down expenses and time. The Aurora staff wishes to thank Darald Ailes of Newsfoto Publishing Company, Phil Gibboney and Carla Bryant for pictures, and Joy Groninger, advisor, for her patience, dedication, and hard work.

An excerpt from A REVERIE ON MANCHESTER COLLEGE

By J. L. Cotner

I take my pen without a sight,
Or aim, or thought of what to write;
It may be good or may be bad,
It may be joyous or be sad.

But on this line my thought shall be,
To deem this school as to a tree,
With branches far out-spreading wide,
And trunk on which can be relied.

It has its boughs complete and well,
results of which in time will tell:
It has a trunk so large and strong
And surely nothing can be wrong.

But if we want to educate,
We must begin to calculate
To either work the more or less
Or we will never make success.

And now I say the tree's complete,
In every detail, every feat.
And if a school you will attend,
Come here to school for it's

YOUR FRIEND

WHAT DO THEY WANT FROM ME?

My parents brought me into this world
I was their first-born son
And from the moment I first cried
The challenge had begun
They sacrificed so I would have
An opportunity
But when it comes to my own life
What do they want from me

My country with its fifty states
Its flag and president
It makes me proud to say that I'm
A U.S. resident
And then there are those patriots
Who died to make it free
But when it comes to my own life
What do they want from me

My college with its liberal arts
Professors by the score
The hours I spent studying
To find they wanted more
They tried to open up my eyes
In hopes that I would see
But when it come to my own life
What do they want from me

But it begins to focus now
The vision that they hold
In searching for the rainbow's end
I found the pot of gold
I've learned that I'm responsible
To choose what's right for me
'Cause all they ever wanted was
The best that I can be
